

Lead Trainer in PYP (Arabic)

The Education Development Institute (EDI) plays a vital role in the Qatar Foundation Pre-university Education (PUE) vision of Leading Learning. The areas of professional learning and development, curriculum, coaching and leadership are the core of our work leading to student growth and achievement. We strive for a direct impact on over 1000 staff and 5000 students within Qatar Foundation Schools, and an even broader impact on educators and students across Qatar and the region.

At EDI, we:

- Lead Professional Learning and Development
- Support Curriculum Improvement
- Build Leadership Capacity

We are looking to fill a full time position of an EDI Lead Trainer in PYP (Arabic).

A Lead Trainer is responsible for designing and delivering Professional Learning and Development experiences for teachers in Qatar Foundation schools and teachers across Qatar. The Lead Trainer builds capacity within schools by training and coaching Teacher-Trainers. They also liaise with teachers to discuss their teaching and impact that it has on student learning. The successful candidate must be qualified to deliver PYP teacher-training in both English and Arabic.

Required professional experience:

- Bachelor's degree from a recognized university (Master's preferred)
- Teaching qualification in primary education
- 7-10 years of IB-PYP teaching experience (in Arabic and English)
- Extensive classroom experience using Inquiry-based approaches
- Formal Teacher-training experience (IBEN membership is preferred)
- Skilled in modifying practices and materials to meet specific needs of students and contexts
- Well-developed communication and presentation skills in multi-cultural contexts
- Experience planning and executing training programs, as well as in coaching individuals

Expectations of EDI team members:

- Be impact focused
- Be agile, innovative and problem-solving focused
- Be values driven
- Be a team player, respect and value all team members
- Reflect deeply
- Take responsibility for your decisions- be accountable for your own performance
- Ask for clarity and/or help when you need it
- Strive for excellence in all areas
